

SEMINAR 9 – MAPS AND CHARTS - “Radical Islam (and Islamic Fundamentalism)” - Global Studies Seminar A

- 国際社会研究演習

- Al-Qaeda’s world: A fascinating map of the group’s shifting global network
<http://www.washingtonpost.com/blogs/worldviews/wp/2013/02/04/al-qaedas-world-a-fascinating-map-of-the-groups-shifting-global-network/>
- Countries with majority or large Muslim populations.
http://www.islamproject.org/education/Africa_Mideast_etc.html
- “From Syria to Iraq, Kenya to Malaysia: How new era of Islamic fundamentalism is spreading fear and chaos around the world”
<http://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-2669427/From-Syria-Iraq-Kenya-Malaysia-How-new-era-Islamic-fundamentalism-spreading-fear-chaos-world.html>
- “Islam around the world - Islam is the world's second largest religion after Christianity. After 11 September 2001, the faith's politics and radical groups are firmly under the microscope. BBC News Online looks at a range of Muslim nations of the world and considers in what ways their politics and societies can be viewed as Islamic.”
http://news.bbc.co.uk/1/shared/spl/hi/middle_east/03/islam_around_the_world/html/
- Maps related to the Islamic State
<http://www.bbc.com/news/world-middle-east-27838034>
- “Sunnis and Shia in the Middle East”
<http://www.bbc.com/news/world-middle-east-25434060>